

Oliver Hastings House (101 Brattle Street), Lesley University

A National Historic Landmark building, the Oliver Hastings House had previously been carved into five residential apartments. After Lesley University acquired the property, we restored the building and converted it to office use for the University's President and Advancement Office. The project received enthusiastic support from the local and state Historic Commissions.

Completed Summer 2011.

