

A gut renovation of this 1949 modernist single-family house (owned by the University) reconfigured a small kitchen and opened it to the dining room, updated bathrooms, added air conditioning and de-leaded the property.

We designed and detailed new wood replacement windows to mimic the original steel, factory-style casement sash. Siding and doors were also replaced.

Completed 2003.

