

Buckingham House, Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study

A small, two-story building located on historic Radcliffe Yard, Buckingham House was originally built almost 200 years ago. Our renovation removed an unnecessary internal stair to create more offices. The project included rehabilitating the historic windows, energy-efficient controls on the heating system, new central air conditioning, and replacement of inefficient light fixtures. Completed 2011.

