

Café, MIT Student Center

We renovated this split-level restaurant (located centrally on campus) to create an active and attractive environment for student socializing.

A large, yellow elliptical figure superimposed on the ceiling relieved the visual severity of a low, concrete waffle slab ceiling. Tired finishes and old furniture were updated, and food service equipment and mechanical systems were replaced.

Completed Fall 2000.

