

New Elevator and Accessibility Improvements, MIT Endicott House

Our historically-sensitive design to insert a new ADA compliant elevator at Endicott House – a stately home in Dedham now operated by MIT as a inn and conference center – involved structural alterations and numerous modifications to adjacent guest rooms. Our interventions are seamless with the original design and construction.

Construction completed Summer 2005.

